

Curriculum Vitae: Sarah Wewege

Nationality	South African
Education	MCom, Economics (2018-2019) Specialising in Economic Development (coursework with distinction) University of Cape Town BSocSci (Honours), International Relations (with distinction) University of Cape Town (2017) BSocSci, Economics and International Relations (2014-2016)
Languages	English (fluent), Afrikaans (fair)

Employment record

January 2019 - Present	Intern OneWorld Sustainable Investments Cape Town, South Africa
December 2016- January 2017	Administrative Assistant Pinewood Technologies (Pty) Lt Cape Town, South Africa
November 2015-December 2015	Housekeeper Keystone Resort Keystone, Colorado
November 2014- September 2015	Wine Stewardess and Sales Constantia Uitsig Wine Farm Cape Town, South Africa
January 2013 – December 2013	Teaching Assistant Woodbridge School Woodbridge, Suffolk

Relevant professional experience

January 2019 - Present	OneWorld Sustainable Investments Intern This role involves research support for various projects, with a current focus on the Evaluation of the Implementation of the Western Cape Climate Change Response Strategy (WCCCRS). This project aims to evaluate the impact that the WCCCRS has had in terms of mitigation and adaptation, measuring its performance and determining scope for improvement for the next iteration. In addition, I provide support on business development activities and various administrative tasks including capturing and organising information.
December 2016- January 2017	Pinewood Technologies (Pty) Lt Administrative Assistant Provided support to the office through the management and distribution of information. Administrative tasks included the answering of phone calls and emails, optimising office functions and managerial client correspondence and communications.

Publications

Wewege, S (2019) Economic Complexity. MCom thesis. University of Cape Town. Economic Development. In preparation

