

Curriculum Vitae: Seutame Maimele

|             |   |
|-------------|---|
| Nationality | South African   |
| Education   | M.Com, Local Economic Development (2020-Ongoing)University of JohannesburgB. Economics, Economic Development (2019)University of the Western Cape |
| Languages   | English (fluent), Sepedi (fluent), IsiXhosa(fair), Zulu(fair)   |

Employment record

|                     |  |
|---------------------|--|
| Jan 2021 – Present  | Research InternOneWorld Sustainable InvestmentsCape Town, South Africa   |
| Jan 2019 – Jan 2021 | Junior EconomistWestern Cape Government, Department of Economic Development and TourismCape Town, South Africa |
| Apr 2018 – Dec 2018 | Student Office AssistantUniversity of the Western CapeCape Town, South Africa                                  |
| Feb 2018 – Dec 2018 | Economics Tutor and mentorUniversity of the Western CapeCape Town, South Africa                                |
| Jan 2017 – Dec 2018 | Economics Student mentorUniversity of the Western CapeCape Town, South Africa                                  |
| Jan 2016 – Dec 2017 | Financial management tutorUniversity of the Western CapeCape Town, South Africa                                |

Relevant professional experience

|                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| Feb 2021–Present   | OneWorld Sustainable InvestmentsResearch InternProviding support to the development of business development proposals for various projects and funders, as well as the developing OneWorld Partners and Consultancy database.  |
| Jan 2020 –Jan 2021 | Western Cape Economic Recovery Plan (2020/21)Western Cape Government, Minister of Finance and Economic OpportunitiesJunior EconomistThe project entailed the drafting of the Western Cape Economic Recovery Plan post Covid-19. Tasks and responsibilities included modelling economic scenarios at the provincial and municipal level, writing research, preparing slides and mining & analysing economic data. |

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Jan 2019 –Dec 2019  | Five Year Strategic Plan 2020 – 2025, Western Cape Government, Department of Economic Development and Tourism   |
|                     | Western Cape Government, Minister of Finance and Economic Opportunities   |
|                     | Junior Economist   |
|                     | The project entailed drafting of the Western Cape Government’s Department of Economic Development and Tourism Economic Strategy.  |
|                     | Key tasks and responsibilities included supporting the delivery of the economic strategy, through data mining and analysis, conducting and updating the situational analysis (i.e., Global, National and Provincial analysis), researching constraints of themes identified and sustaining the solutions highlighted (i.e., growing exports, addressing the skills, accelerating the Ease of Doing Business, etc.) and taking minutes during stakeholder engagements. |
| May 2019 –July 2019 | Reviewing of Western Cape municipalities(All 30 municipalities) Integrated Development Plans and Local Economic Development strategies  |
|                     | Western Cape Municipalities   |
|                     | Junior Economist   |
|                     | The project involved reviewing all 30 Western Cape municipal (24 local municipalities, 5 districts and the City of Cape Town) Integrated Development Plans and Local Economic Development strategies.   |
|                     | Key tasks and responsibilities included reviewing the Local Economic Development strategies of Municipalities and the Integrated Development Plans, this included finding links and synergies between the provincial economic strategy & plan and the municipal economic strategies and plans.  |
| Feb 2019 –Dec 2020  | Analysis of the Quarterly Labour Force Survey (2019-2020)   |
|                     | Western Cape Government, Minister of Finance and Economic Opportunities   |
|                     | Junior Economist   |
|                     | The project required writing an analysis of the Quarterly Labour Force Survey published by Statistic South Africa on labour force characteristics in South Africa.  |
|                     | Key tasks and responsibilities included easy interpretation of the labour force data through analysis and writing key labour market outlooks and situation, such as unemployment status of the Western Cape Province and how well it is positioned with other provinces and South Africa.   |
| July 2019 –Sep 2019 | Research Paper on the African Continental Free Trade Agreement (AfCTA)  |
|                     | Western Cape Government, Minister of Finance and Economic Opportunities   |
|                     | Junior Economist   |
|                     | The project required writing a research paper on the opportunities and challenges the African Continental Free Trade Agreement depicted in the Western Cape province.   |
|                     | Key tasks and responsibilities included researching, data analysis and writing key challenges and opportunities of the Western Cape Province.   |
| July 2019 –Sep 2019 | Review of the South African fisheries and the SACD-EU Economic Partnership Agreement-Review of the EU-SA abalone export policy  |
|                     | Western Cape Government, Minister of Finance and Economic Opportunities   |
|                     | Junior Economist   |
|                     | The project required writing a review paper on the SACD-EU Economic Partnership Agreement   |
|                     | Key tasks and responsibilities included reviewing the export policy in relation to abalone exports in the Western Cape  |

---

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Feb 2019 – Jan 2021 | Commenting on national and provincial legislations, economic policies and strategies and responding to parliament questions Western Cape Government, Minister of Finance and Economic Opportunities Junior Economist The project required commenting on national and provincial legislations (National Health Insurance, Carbon tax policy), economic strategies and policies (Towards an economic strategy for South Africa, Western Cape Township Economic Strategy) and support answering parliament questions sent to the minister (This included the technical response to the minister to the Cape Chambers of Commerce). Key tasks and responsibilities included writing and collating comments on these policies and legislations and reviewing and editing the comments. |
| Apr 2018 – Dec 2018 | University of the Western Cape Student Office Assistant Key tasks and responsibilities included supporting the stakeholder and innovation manager with office needs, such as coordinating meetings, researching key topics as advised by the manager. Also, helped with organising the Africa Day celebration event, which the aim was to showcase the ITC capabilities of the University.  |
| Feb 2018 – Dec 2018 | University of the Western Cape Economics Tutor and mentor Key tasks and responsibilities included mentoring new economics tutors on how to balance between studies, life and tutoring economics at the university. Similarly, task and responsibilities for being a tutor included tutoring first year's economics and marking their test papers.   |
| Jan 2017 – Dec 2018 | University of the Western Cape Economics student mentor Key tasks and responsibilities included mentoring first year economics students in the university and how to balance between being an economic student and life.  |
| Jan 2016 – Dec 2017 | University of the Western Cape Financial management tutor Key tasks and responsibilities included tutoring financial mathematics to first years and marking their test papers.  |

---

Publications

---

Bux, S., Oliver, G., Kriel, C., Maimela, S., Kirsten, S., Ewers, C., Van Niekerk, R., (2020), Western Cape Economic Review. Western Cape Government, Department of Economic Development and Tourism